

Job Title & Vacancy :

- (1) ULD Assembly Repairman
- (2) Tire and Wheel Assembly Repairman

Personnel Qualifications:

IELTS 4.0 or TOEIC 500 above

Internship Contents:

During the one-year internship at an aviation wheel tire/ULD (unit load device) shop, interns can expect to learn, involve in a variety of tasks and responsibilities. These may include:

1. Maintenance and Repair: Interns can participate in maintenance, repair the components through the operation of the special machines and follow the procedures, work with senior colleagues to complete tasks.
2. Inventory Management: Gaining experience in managing inventory and supplies required for components repairing to optimize the stock levels.
3. Documentation and Reporting: Gaining experience in documenting processes, preparing reports and records keeping as required for quality assurance and compliance.
4. Teamwork: Working closely with professional teams, including engineers, technicians and quality assurance personnel, to ensure smooth operations.
5. Quality Control: Learning about quality control measures and participating in inspections to ensure component meet maintenance manual, aviation standards and safety requirements.

Overall, an internship at component repairing shop provides a unique opportunity to gain valuable insights into the specialized field of aviation component maintenance and contribute to the safety and efficiency of the aviation industry.

These special experiences can provide them with full progress in teamwork, problem-solving and technical skills, which will be of great help to their career development after graduation.