

Job Title & Vacancy:

Training Specialist (vacancies: 1)

Personnel Qualifications:

IELTS 4.5 or TOEIC 550 or above

Internship Contents:

1. Training Planning:

Interns can learn about training planning and training administrative tasks.

2. Training Management System:

Understand that training uses system management to start courses, conduct courses, complete courses, and produce records to achieve the training elements required to meet the qualifications for each aviation maintenance task.

3. Training Materials:

Understand the production, maintenance, update of training materials and how to comply with aviation regulations.

4. Question Bank Management:

Understand the generation, maintenance, updating of training examination questions and how to comply with aviation regulations.

5. Training Manual:

Understand the training manual, understand the structure of the training manual, how to use the training manual and query the training manual.

All in all, the internship provides a unique opportunity for you to understand the implementation of aviation training, the relevant basis, the limitations of training, and the essential elements of practical training teaching. Through this internship, you can have an overall framework for maintenance training understanding it will provide more help for the career development of interns after graduation.